Call To Action Job Posting Church Justice Coordinator (Part-Time)

Call To Action, a national progressive Catholic organization working for equality and justice, seeks an organized, energetic part-time (17.5 hours per week) Church Justice Organizer to coordinate Call To Action's JustChurch program (www.cta-usa.org/justchurch/). The JustChurch program brings to national attention local injustices and motivates grassroots efforts to bring about positive change.

The Church Justice Coordinator will put their grassroots community organizing skills and their Catholic knowledge to work to help Call To Action build a just and inclusive church.

The successful candidate will be committed to social justice, have grassroots and netroots organizing skills, have outstanding communication skills, be a team player, and prioritize tasks so that she/he may assist in media campaigns, create educational and action materials, and build relationships with other justice organizations.

This position will require some night and weekend work. While this position will involve periodic travel, the position will be based at Call To Action's Chicago office.
