

Call To Action Midwest Regional Conference October 20 - 21, 2017

St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 1950 Trumbull Ave, Detroit, Michigan
Hilton Garden Inn, 351 Gratiot Ave, Detroit, Michigan

Progressive, Inclusive Catholic Community Working together for equality and justice

What Breaks Your Heart? A Call To Action - A Call to a New Spirituality

Spirituality that is deeply ecumenical, interspiritual and post-traditional.

Spirituality that is contemplative and experience based. It starts from life rather than concepts.

Spirituality that is practice that goes beyond traditional contemplative exercises.

Spirituality that does not include action is no spirituality at all. But it's not just about any action – it's about action that comes from one's deepest calling.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Adam Bucko

Adam Bucko is an activist, spiritual director to many of New York City's homeless youth, and co-author of "Occupy Spirituality: A Radical Vision for a New Generation" (North Atlantic Books 2013) and "The New Monasticism: An Interspiritual Manifesto for Contemplative Living" (Orbis Books 2015).

He collaborates with spiritual leaders across religious traditions and mentors young people, helping them discover a spiritual life in the 21st century and how to live deeply from the heart in service of compassion and justice.

Kim Redigan

Kim Redigan is Vice Chair of the Michigan Coalition for Human Rights and a member of Detroit People's Water Board Coalition Faith Action Committee. As non-violence trainer and peace educator with Michigan – Meta Peace Team, she has served on several domestic and international peace teams. She is involved with Women in Black – Detroit, Detroit Metro Interfaith Worker Justice, the Detroit Area Peace Network and is on the state council of Pax Christi Michigan.

FOCUS SESSIONS: URBAN FARMING DETROIT WATER JUSTICE RECLAIM DETROIT STOPPING HUMAN TRAFFICKIN SEEKING JOY PEACE CENTER SOUP KITCHEN

For more information about the conference and to register, visit:

<http://ctamid1.cta-wc.a2hosted.com/>